To the Editor of the Australasian.

Sir,—The circumstance that I have written stories for several years under the signature of my initials, "A. C.," with which in consequence my literary personality—if I may use so large a phrase—has become identified, induces me to request you to allow me to state in your columns that a novel recently published in a Sydney evening journal under the same initials is not the work of your contributor. A. C.
